MCDONALD NAMED BY AGGLAMATION

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 4.—The Democrats in State Convention here got down to business, after hearing the reports of the various committees. The convention, which was to consist of 272 delegates, has over 300 in actual attendance, several delegations having been sent giving each delegate from those counties a fractional vote.

W. C. McDonald was nominated for Governor by acclamation. Mr. McDonald has been chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and has not been a candidate for the place. In an interview the first of the week, he declared he was not a candidate, giving as his reason for not desiring the place the fact that his many private interests demanded his attention. He is president of the Carrizozo Trading Company, and also interested in other business of his home town, Carrizozo. His record is clean, a man whom thinking people will delight to honor. That he will gain strength and votes every day until the day of election is a foregone conclusion.

While not definitely agreed upon, it is more than probable that the Progressive Republicans in convention in Santa Fe will endorse the Democratic ticket. It is expected that the Democrats will name among their list of nominees several of the Progressives.

B. H. Garnett has gone to Fort Morgan, Colo., to investigate a newspaper proposition at that place.

N. A. Wells returned from Willard yesterday, where he was in attendance at the State Socialist Convention on Monday of this week.

R. A. Marble was down from his home above Tajique yesterday, bringing his father-in-law, Mr. Fry, who left for his eastern home yesterday noon.

Miss Hildreth Soper of McIntosh, who for the past month or more has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. DeArcy on Capitol Heights, has returned to her home at McIntosh, Torrance county.—New Mexican.

Will not Stand for Bursum

Aztec, N. M., Oct. 2.—The last issue of the San Juan County Index, which has for six years been a Republican paper, comes out against the election of H. O. Bursum, on the ground that his past record unfits him to be the governor of a progressive state. This stand of the Index is heartily endorsed by the rank and file of the party in San Juan county, who have for years gone down to defeat trying to carry the burdens that Mr. Bursum and the other members of the Republican machine foisted on them. The Republican primaries occur October 5 and the convention will convene in the court house at Aztec on October 10. The Progressive Republicans are organized all over the county and there promises to be a lively time at the convention.

Postmasters will Meet

On October 10 the postmasters of the new state will meet in Albuquerque to organize the New Mexico Association of Postmasters. A beginning upon this movement was made last summer in Raton. F. O. Blood, of this city, was elected temporary president and W. A. Davis was selected for temporary secretary. The meeting in Albuquerque has been called by these men. The object of the association is for the promotion of co-operation among the state postmasters in all things for the good of the postal service. All of the postmasters in the state have been communicated with during the past several months and all are heartily in favor of the organization of the association.—Las Vegas Optic.

Democratic Club

To the Democrats of Torrance County, N. M.:

All Democrats who are interested in forming a Democratic Club will please meet at my office in Estancia Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

W. A. Brumback.

Mrs. W. C. Grant left for Amarillo, Texas, Tuesday night upon receipt of a message announcing that her brother was dying.

FOR SALE—My livery and feed business. Will give time to responsible party on good security. Monte Goodin, Estancia. 49 1tf

HEWITT FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

The delegates to the district judicial convention of the Democrats for Luna, Otero, Dona Ana and Torrance counties, met this forenoon and nominated John Y. Hewitt, of White Oaks, member of the last legislative assembly, for judge; and Morgan O. Llewellyn, of Las Cruces, former surveyor general of New Mexico, for district attorney.—New Mexican.

The nomination of Judge Hewitt for district judge is giving honor to a worthy man. The Judge ably represented this district in the upper house of the last legislature, being a member of the "small, but respectable minority," a term used first in derision, but later applied with honor. Judge Hewitt's integrity and honesty is unquestioned, and he will grace the seat of the District Judge when New Mexico shall have donned her statehood robes.

May be Clark

That the democrats may agree on the nomination of J. E. Clark for superintendent of public instruction is not at all improbable. They are said to have agreed that the position if one that has no place in politics and since Mr. Clark has filled the office with satisfaction for the past four years they may decide to continue him for the good of the public school system of the new state. It is understood he will accept the nomination if tendered him.—Albuquerque Journal.

Gleever Cartoon

At the Las Vegas convention Hold Out Bursum was mentioned as the Abe Lincoln of New Mexico. Wednesday's Albuquerque Journal has a cartoon showing the original Abe towering mightily above the Hold Out Fake. At their feet the pile of books is burning, the nauseating smoke rising and causing Honest Abe to hold his nose as a matter of self protection. Cox, the cartoonist, is allright, all right.

The Democratic party now has the best opportunity in years to secure control of the government of the new state. The Republicans, by the nomination of Bursum, he of penitentiary "fame," have plainly stated their intention to continue the infamous gang rule of recent years, particularly noticeable some few years ago.—Roswell Record.

Information for Depositors

1. The Postal Savings System is established for the purpose of providing facilities for depositing savings at interest with the security of the United States Government for repayment.

2. The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of deposits made in postal savings depository offices with accrued interest as provided by the postal savings act.

3. Accounts may be opened and deposits made by any person of the age of 10 years or over in his or her own name and by a married woman in her own name and free from any interference or control by her husband. No person can have more than one account at any one time.

4. No person may open a postal savings account at any post office who is not a patron of that office.

5. All accounts must be opened in person by the depositor or his authorized representative. After opening an account a depositor may forward subsequent deposits to the post office by mail.

6. Deposits will be accepted only from individuals, and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm, or partnership, in the names of two or more persons jointly.

7. No account will be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

8. The service of the Postal Savings System is free, and no charge or fee is collected or required in connection with the opening of an account or the withdrawal of money deposited.

9. No person connected with the Post Office Department or the postal service is permitted to disclose the name of any depositor or give any information concerning an account except to the depositor himself, unless directed to do so by the Postmaster General.

10. When a person applies to open an account he must furnish the necessary information for the postmaster or his representative to fill out an application, which he will then be required to sign. If the applicant signs by mark his signature must be witnessed by a disinterested person.

Rev. B. F. Summeas arrived on last night's train from Santa Fe, to take up his duties as pastor of the M. E. Church here.

With Bursum governor, Hubbell and Luna manipulators and a phable man as land commissioner, what chance would the rights of the people of the commonwealth stand when it came to the disposing of public lands? They have the sheep, they need the land.—Balance Wheel.

If the gang should be successful in the coming election, some concern prepared to manufacture incombustible books ought to do well here.—Balance Wheel.

BIRDMEN GUARANTEE TO FLY

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 3, That Charles F. Walsh, one of the best known and most daring aviators in the country has been selected to make the aeroplane flights at the New Mexico State Fair, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Fair week, October 9 to 14, and that the flights will positively and absolutely be made, successfully and to the satisfaction of the people of New Mexico, is the information conveyed today from Jerome S. Fanciulli, general manager of the Curtiss Exhibition Company, of New York, to John B. McManus, secretary-manager of the New Mexico Fair. Walsh has just completed a very successful series of flights in Ogden, Utah, where he ascended into the higher altitudes for four straight days, two flights each day, to the satisfaction of thousands of visitors. "We have convinced other people and will convince the New Mexico people that a Curtiss aviator and a Curtiss biplane will fly there at the Fair," is one of the sentences contained in Mr. Fanciulli's telegram.

The New Mexico State Fair Association has arranged for Curtiss aeroplane flights at big expense. They have secured the best biplane and one of the best aviators in the United States. The Fair Association is ready to convince skeptics. Many people really doubt that flights are going to be made. Those people are especially invited to come to the Fair and be convinced. In addition to aeroplane flights six base ball clubs will contest for big prizes: Dawson, Santa Fe Albuquerque, Clovis, El Paso and Amarillo. As many of the leagues have finished the season, some of the best players in the business will be seen in action at Albuquerque. Many of them will go to the big leagues next season.

The horse races are coming along famously, the entries assuring a splendid racing exhibition every day. With the exhibits and displays, the carnival of forty shows, the Montezuma ball, the conventions and meetings of social and fraternal organizations the First State Fair is bound to be a success and the Association hopes to have Albuquerque entertain the biggest crowd in the history of New Mexico affairs during the coming week.

For Probate Clerk

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Probate Clerk of Torrance County, subject to the action of the Republican Convention at Willard, October, 16th. If I am so honored as to get the nomination, I ask the support of every voter of Torrance County.

JUAN C. JARAMILLO.
